

7th Grade New Testament (Gospels)

Introduction to the NT World (Part 1)

_____ - an early historian of Jewish life and history in the first century. He is the most important source for Jewish history in the Roman period.

Inter-testamental History (time between the Old Testament and New Testament):

722 BCE Northern Kingdom of Israel exiled by _____

586 BCE Southern Kingdom of Judah exiled by _____ _____ Empire overtakes Babylonians and King Cyrus allows the Jews to return to the Promised Land.

_____ and _____ return with some of the Jews and begin rebuilding the temple and the city walls of Jerusalem. Ezra reinstates the sacrificial system and brings spiritual renewal to the people.

3 Temples:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

_____ leads conquest from Greece all the way to India. In his path, he leaves behind Greek culture (Hellenization), setting the stage for two important developments for the coming of the Messiah:

- 1.
2. The spread of roads and infrastructure in the known world (including the establishment of cities)

At Alexander's death, his territory was split among 4 of his generals. The _____ were in charge of Egypt and the _____ (Syrians) were in charge of the area north of Jerusalem. They fought for control over Palestine. By 198 BCE, the _____ gained control over the region. This time period is marked by the following under the rule of Antiochus Epiphanies:

- 1.
2. Attempts to transition Jerusalem into a Greek city
- 3.
4. His determination to end Jewish religion came to a peak in 168 BCE when he had a hog sacrificed on the altar in the temple in the name of Zeus. Every copy of the Pentateuch was ordered destroyed. Practicing the law of Moses was forbidden.

Coin of Antiochus Epiphanies
(pictured as Zeus)

In 167 BCE, the Jews fought back, led by _____, an elderly priest. He scrambled a few men together and fought guerrilla style warfare against the Syrians. This is called the _____. His son, Judas the Maccabee, gained religious liberty for his people and rededicated the temple on December 25, 164 BCE. This event is celebrated today as _____.

The second son of Mattathias, _____, won political independence from the Syrians in 143 BCE. His descendants became more and more influenced by Greek culture over the generations. The _____ and _____ appear at this time. A civil war breaks out between Mattathias' line of kings and the Pharisees. Over 50,000 Jews die in the war and the king at the time (Alexander Jannaeus) has 800 _____ crucified and executes their families in front of them. It was during this time that the priesthood became a political role.

The New Testament World

1. Political

The Roman Empire captured _____ in 63 BCE. Augustus Caesar was the Roman Emperor during the birth of Christ. _____, his adopted son, succeeded him and ruled from 13-37 CE. He was ruling during the time of Jesus' death. The notorious _____ was emperor during the years of 54-68 CE. He was very brutal and carried out persecution against Christians in _____. According to church tradition, _____ and _____ were killed during these persecutions.

The Romans appointed _____ to control the Palestine territory between 37 and 4 BCE. He was known as a clever yet brutal ruler and politician. This is the Herod mentioned in Matthew 2:13-18 when the _____ came to look for _____.

Herod's sons were _____ and _____ who each inherited a portion of their father's territory. Herod's grandson Agrippa I murdered _____ the Apostle and put _____ in prison. His son, _____ heard Paul's defense of the gospel when he was under trial.

Roman Emperors:

- _____ - ruled during the time of Jesus' birth (31 bce - 14 CE)
- _____ - ruled during the time of Jesus' life and death (14-37 CE)
- Caligula (37-41 CE)
- _____ - Jews are expelled from Rome during his reign (41-54 CE)
- _____ - ruled during the time of the Apostles; Peter and Paul are executed under his persecution (54 - 68 CE)

By 68 CE, the Jews were ripe for rebellion (again) and longing for independence. The Romans subjugated them and by 70 CE, the city of Jerusalem was leveled. The temple was destroyed, leaving only the _____ (still there today).

Roman Emperors from left to right: Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, and Nero

Images above from:

Map of Alexander's Empire: <https://sp.yimg.com/ib/th?id=JN.PZCmqU2kPYqhKFWYvwlPnQ&pid=15.1&P=0&w=300&h=300>

Coin of Antiochus Epiphanies: <https://alwaysproventrue.files.wordpress.com/2012/01/antiochus-iv-epiphanes-as-zeus-coin2.jpg>

Augustus image: <https://sp.yimg.com/ib/th?id=JN.o%2banScYzxazAB5XKiD7N%2fQ&pid=15.1>

Tiberius image: <http://1.bp.blogspot.com/-rDJDmyvOMT8/USwmFwHOviI/AAAAAAAAAYmA/VIKk7bYViUg/s1600/tiberius+probably+made+after+Tiberius's+death+in+A.D.+37,+perhaps+during+the+reign+of+Claudiu.jpg>

Caligula image: <http://www.romanemperors.com/images/caligula/bust-houston-museum.jpg>

Claudius image: http://2.bp.blogspot.com/_fNYaP1cGoQQ/TDo7lxN-y2I/AAAAAAAAABQs/umtNduhNbAg/s1600/claudius_civiccrown.jpg

Nero image: <https://sp.yimg.com/ib/th?id=JN.LsyC0NQAXaHfN%2f%2bPFow1mQ&pid=15.1&P=0&w=300&h=300>