

Zacchaeus Was a Wee Little Man

(additional Lyrics by Stan Dotson)

Zacchaeus was a wee little man, a wee little man was he
He climbed up in a sycamore tree for the Lord he wanted to see
And as the Savior passed that way he looked up in the tree
(spoken) And he said, Zacchaeus, you come down
(sung) For I'm going to your house today, I'm going to your house today

And as Zacchaeus climbed back down the crowd began to groan
They did not think the savior should be seen in a such a home
They did not know the wee little man was soon to be transformed (spoken) 'Til he said, Look, Lord, I'll give to the poor, and re-pay all my victims fourfold
(sung) For today I've been re-born, today I've been re-born

And when the wealth was freely shared and scamming was re-paid
The Savior boldly told the crowd a miracle occurred that day
The heart of the wee little man had grown four sizes from the call, (spoken) And he who once was short on love . . .
(sung) was suddenly walking tall, He was suddenly walking tall
